Guild Proposal in Partnership with Dakota County for New Facility

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Dakota County in partnership with Guild, has submitted a proposal to Minnesota Department of Human Services for a grant to authorize Dakota County to design, construct or rehabilitate, furnish and equip a behavioral health crisis center to provide mental health services in partnership with Guild.

This facility would be located at the Guild's current location on Livingston in West St Paul. Dakota County has asked for letters of support from various stakeholders to incorporate into their proposal to the Minnesota Department of Human Services.

Staff will go over this proposal with Committee members along with potential pros and cons.
